

The TCA group e-mail message policy is as follows:

When you reply to someone who has posted a message to the group, your reply goes to the original person who sent the message, not to the whole group.

You will still send messages to the group in the usual manner but all replies will go back to the original sender. This will eliminate excess messages reaching each person's inbox. Please also note that if you wish to reply to the message and your reply is pertinent to the group as a whole, you are still welcome to make your reply available to the whole group by simply forwarding instead of replying, putting the group address in the "TO" line.

All posts should be "on topic" meaning that messages must in some way relate to TCA, co-op, the homeschool community, or homeschooling in general. The exceptions would be items for sale or for free, area events of interest to homeschoolers/Christians, and prayer requests for your family or close friends. There are to be no messages relating to religious or political issues, and no jokes, anecdotes or other such forwards. This list is to be primarily a communication tool for members of co-op and as such we would like to keep it informative and helpful.

We appreciate everyone's understanding and cooperation in this matter!

Love ya,

Robin
